

Author Guidelines

Al-Kufa University Journal for Biology set the following guidelines for authors wishing to publish their manuscripts in this journal.

General roles:

- KJB is an open access journal.
- It considers different types of scientific research.
- All articles must fulfill certain criteria of excellence and will be subjected to the process that ensures this. KJB is a peer review journal. All articles will be subjected to plagiarism roles stated by KJB.
- The author\ s\ are requested to refer to and complete the required information about the publication process.
- The author must prepare the covering letter.
- It is required to show a signed letter of approval from the Ethical Committee or the Institutional Review Board .
- The title page is required to be submitted (separated from the manuscript stem) .
- KJB manuscript template and referencing style must be considered.
- The authors can track their articles at any time.
- All accepted articles are subjected to publication fees.

The submission process is electronic.